Charting the Trajectory Toward Vikshit Bharat @2047

The Aim

To architect a comprehensive blueprint for reforming pre-service and in-service teacher education, ensuring educators are intellectually, technologically, and ethically equipped for modern classrooms.

Key Objectives

- Integrate AI and emerging technologies into pedagogical frameworks.
- Embed Sustainable Development Goals (SDG 4) directly into teacher curricula.
- Cultivate agile leadership and advanced school administration models.

Expected Outcomes

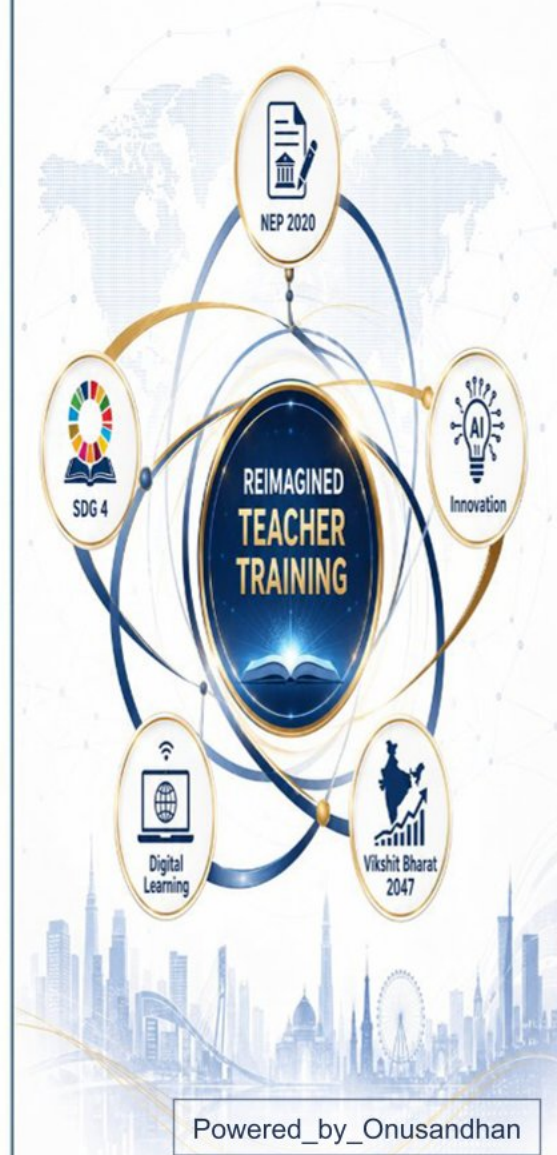

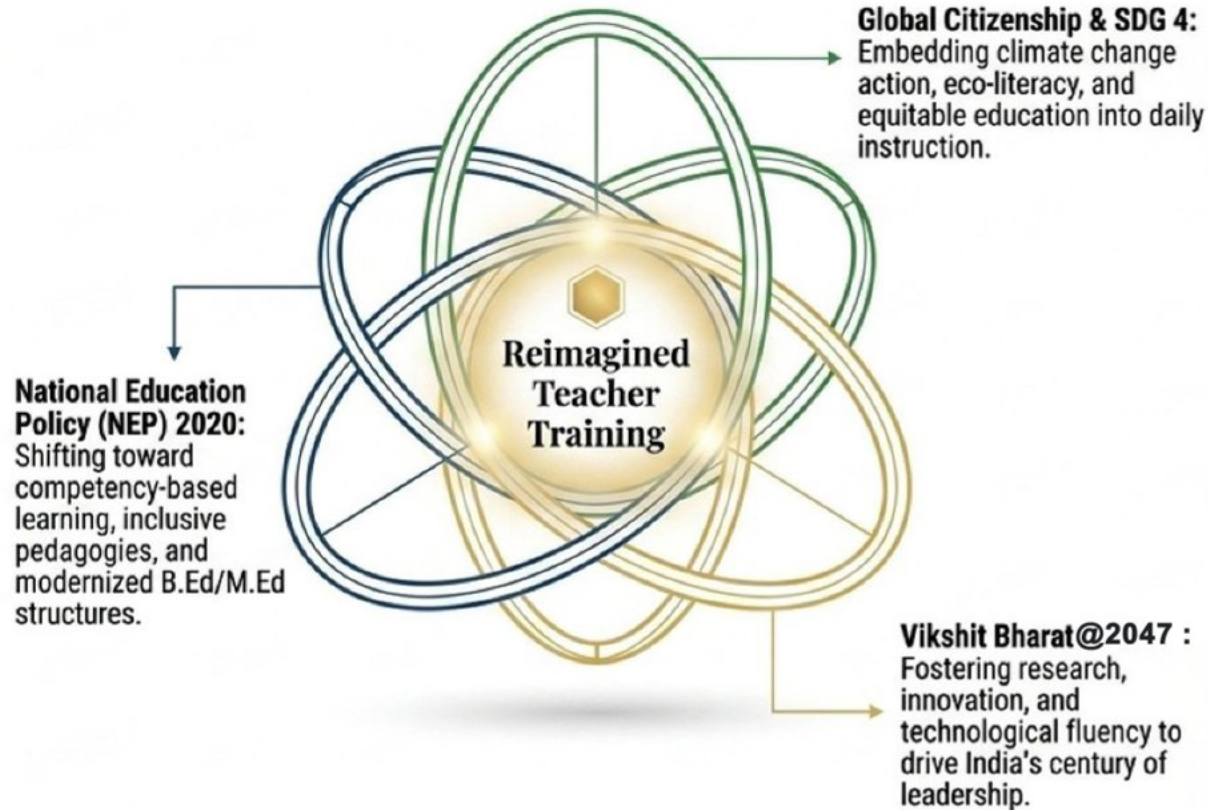

- Publication of peer-reviewed, actionable policy recommendations.
- Establishment of global collaborative networks for continuous professional development.
- A localized, scalable roadmap directly contributing to the educational mandate of Vikshit Bharat 2047.

OUR OBJECTIVES

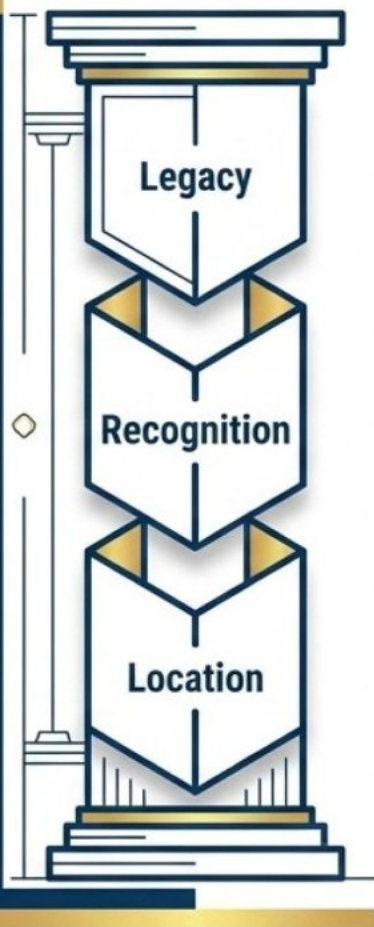

The Convergence of Policy, Sustainability, and Innovation

Fostering Academic Excellence in West Bengal

The Institution

Baikuntha College of Education stands as a premier beacon of pedagogical advancement in India. Established in 2016, the institution has rapidly evolved into a vital hub for educational research and sophisticated teacher development.

Accreditation

Formally recognized by the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE), ensuring strict adherence to elite academic standards, robust pedagogical frameworks, and rigorous institutional governance.

The Campus

Located in the culturally rich and strategically significant region of Kathal Bari, Dalimpur, Falakata, Alipurduar, West Bengal (735211). The campus provides a serene, focused environment conducive to high-level intellectual exchange and sustained academic inquiry.

Diagnosing the Shift in Educational Leadership

Focus Sub-theme: Leadership and Administration in Educational Institutions. Preparing teachers for leadership roles demands a transition from static management to agile, visionary school governance.

Paradigm Shift Matrix

The 20th-Century Administrator	The 21st-Century Educational Leader
Enforcer of compliance and localized rules.	Architect of a collaborative, visionary school culture.
Reactive, short-term localized planning.	Strategic, forward-looking planning aligned with global SDGs.
Technology viewed as an isolated operational tool.	Seamless AI and digital integration in holistic governance.
Static resource allocation based on historical precedent.	Dynamic, data-driven resource management and funding innovation.

We invite academic papers that rigorously explore the mentorship, peer-learning, and administrative frameworks required to cultivate these future-ready institutional leaders.

Inviting Global Contributions to Educational Research

The Call for Papers

The Scientific Committee of Baikuntha College of Education formally invites original, unpublished research papers, empirical studies, and conceptual articles from global academicians, research scholars, school administrators, and higher education policymakers.

The Academic Mandate

Submissions must rigorously address the designated seminar themes, demonstrating clear alignment with NEP 2020 paradigms, SDG targets, or innovative pedagogical frameworks. We seek research that bridges theoretical excellence with actionable classroom implementation, ultimately contributing to the monumental vision of Vikshit Bharat@2047.

Academic Standards and Submission Blueprint

Originality & Integrity

Manuscripts must be 100% original. We enforce a strict zero-tolerance policy for plagiarism. All papers will undergo rigorous double-blind peer-review and advanced AI-similarity checks.

Formatting & Structure

- Language: Formal Academic English
- Font: Times New Roman, 12 pt
- Spacing: 1.5 lines
- Word Count: Abstracts (250-300 words); Full Papers (3000-5000 words)

Abstract Requirements

Abstracts must include a clear, concise statement of the problem, research methodology, key findings, and 4-6 specific academic keywords.

Submission Protocol

Authors must submit documents exclusively in MS Word (.docx) format via the official seminar portal prior to the stated deadlines.

Academic Outputs and Recognition

Publication Ecosystem

All accepted abstracts will be published in the official Seminar Souvenir & Abstract Book (with ISBN).

Selected high-impact full papers will undergo peer review for publication in a UGC-CARE Listed Journal or an internationally indexed Proceedings Book.

Excellence Awards

- Best Paper Award: Recognizing unparalleled research rigor, originality, and methodological soundness.
- Best Presenter Award: Honoring exceptional communication, rhetorical clarity, and mastery of complex pedagogical concepts.

Global Certification

Verifiable E-Certificates will be securely issued to all digital delegates. Premium physical certificates, bearing the official seals of the organizing bodies, will be awarded to all offline presenters and attendees.

Thank You

TOGETHER, LET'S BUILD
A FUTURE ROOTED IN VALUES,
DRIVEN BY KNOWLEDGE,
AND COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE.

We sincerely thank all our collaborators, participants, and supporters for being a part of this meaningful academic initiative. Your contribution will help shape innovative ideas and create a lasting impact on society.
